Athletics Wellington Track and Field CommitteeCode of conduct for athletes, coaches officials and supporters.

Athletes, coaches, officials and supporters must respect basic human rights, including the equal rights of each athlete coach or official, without discrimination on the grounds of gender, race, colour, language, religion, political or other affiliation. Athletes, coaches, officials and supporters must respect the dignity and recognise the contribution of each individual. This includes respecting the right to freedom from physical or sexual harassment, advances and innuendo.

Athletes, coaches, officials and supporters must respect the Rules of Competition. This respect should extend to the spirit as well as to the letter of the rules, in both training and competition, to ensure fairness of competitive opportunity between all athletes.

Athletes, coaches and supporters must exhibit an active respect for officials by accepting the role of the officials in providing judgment to ensure that the competitions are conducted fairly and according to the established rules.

Competition Arena - Athletes/Coaches please note:

All Centre meets will be conducted under competition rules. This means that the arena is to be treated as a competition area, and only athletes competing in their scheduled event should be inside the arena at any time. Coaches/parents/supporters, and any athletes training/warming up, need to remain outside the fence
